To Whom It May Concern:

Envirotech Extrusion had approximately sixty employees at our peak 3 to 4 years ago. With the ups and downs of the economy we felt the need to take a better look at our insurance needs and expenses.

Along came the Michael Stafford Insurance Group and presented us a program of life and health coverage's for our employees, both as a group and for their personal needs. In addition, we were presented with an economical package of general business and workers compensation coverage's.

The team at Stafford Insurance has been great to work with on claims, premiums, and just general business and personal information for us and our employees. Their complete knowledge in the insurance field really shines through.
